In 2010, the University established the Alan Gilbert Mobility Scholarship Fund in memory of the late Professor Alan Gilbert, to commemorate his contribution to the University and his passion for internationalisation. Professor Alan Gilbert was the Vice-Chancellor of the University from 1996 to 2004. Professor Gilbert is remembered for having established the Melbourne Scholarships Program, an initiative designed both to attract outstanding, high-achieving students and also support students from less fortunate circumstances in their studies.

Beginning in 2012, each year one or more Alan Gilbert Mobility Scholarships will be awarded at the discretion of the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Engagement) on the advice of the Alan Gilbert Mobility Scholarship Committee to a student to study on exchange for one year for credit to a University of Melbourne degree at an overseas institution approved for the purpose by the University to assist them with travel and other costs. The study overseas may commence in either semester 2, 2013 or semester 1, 2014. The value of the scholarship is the net annual income of the fund in the previous year. In 2013, the value is a one-off payment of $5,298.00.
