LYON, A UNIVERSITY CITY
Lyon, with over 120 000 students in 3 universities and 17 Grandes Écoles, is the second biggest university city in France. Lyon’s institutions offer a wide variety of multi-disciplinary programs. It has a remarkable location in the heart of Europe, only an average of one and a half hours from all major metropolitan areas.

DISCOVER UNIVERSITY JEAN MOULIN LYON 3, A HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES INSTITUTION
The University has prestigious facilities, mainly across two sites in the heart of the city: the Quai Claude Bernard and the Manufacture des Tabacs.

Lyon 3 offers programs in law, political science, philosophy, economics, management, languages, humanities, history, geography, information technology and communication within 6 schools and faculties.

Open to Europe and the world, the Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3 has 23 000 students of 120 different nationalities. With 350 international partnerships, Lyon 3 offers students opportunities for overseas study periods.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES
The DEUF program offers students the opportunity to:
- Improve their use of the French language
- Get to know various aspects of French cultural and professional life
- Have their home university acknowledge their Lyon 3 exam results
