Dear UCEAP Student,

One of UC's most beautiful campuses, UC Santa Cruz is surrounded by redwoods and panoramic views of the ocean, while only minutes from beaches, the boardwalk and downtown Santa Cruz. The UCSC tradition of creative thinking and innovation fuels both a vibrant arts community and the renowned high-technology industry of the Silicon Valley.

Study American studies, biology, ecology and evolution, environmental studies, economics, film and digital media, history, literature, physics, politics, sociology, psychology, and theater arts.

"When I arrived in Santa Cruz I told my family and friends back in Chile that I was living in a place similar to a national park. It was beautiful, with a lot of animals and nature. Best of all I was living in the middle of a campus surrounded by a forest with the best classes and people ever!" (UCSC Reciprocity student from the Pontifical Catholic University of Chile)
Experiment with living plants at the UCSC Arboretum, view upcoming artist exhibits at the Mary Porter Sesnon Art Gallery, take part in research opportunities at the Seymour Marine Discovery Center, and dedicate yourself to increasing ecological sustainability and social justice in the food and agriculture system at CASFS.
